

The Wayne Independent, Honesdale, Pa. Tuesday, Sept. 2, 1980—5

See p. 1417,
9

CHRISTIAN MARSHALL

Christian E. Marshall, Carbondale RD 1, died Saturday, Aug. 30, 1980, in Moses Taylor Hospital, Scranton, after an illness.

Born in Greenfield Township, son of the late Christian and Katy Matteson Marshall, he was a farmer and prior to retirement was a Pennsylvania Department of Transportation employee. Mr. Marshall was also a member of the Greenfield Township Volunteer Fire Co.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Stephens, Orson; and Mrs. Lucy Kasmerl, Delaware Water Gap; one brother, Russell Marshall, Carbondale; several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was Tuesday from the Joseph J. Brennan Funeral Home, 55 Lincoln avenue, Carbondale, with services at 11 a.m. The Rev. James Reese, pastor of the Finch Hill Baptist Church, officiated. Interment, Canaan Corners cemetery, Waymart.

→ worked
for W.A.R.

Carbondale (Pa.) News, Thursday, Sept. 4, 1980—15

Obituaries

MARSHALL, Christian E., late of RD 1, Carbondale, died Saturday, Aug. 30 in Moses Taylor Hospital, Scranton, after an illness.

Born in Greenfield Township, son of the late Christian and Katy Matteson Marshall, he was a farmer and prior to retirement was a Pennsylvania Department of Transportation employee. He was also a member of the Greenfield Township Volunteer Fire Co.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Stevens, Orson, and Mrs. Lucy Kasmerl, Delaware Water Gap; a brother, Russell Marshall, Carbondale, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral took place Tuesday, Sept. 2 from Joseph J. Brennan Funeral Home, 55 Lincoln Ave., Carbondale, with services at 11 a.m. by Rev. James Reese, pastor of Finch Hill Baptist Church. Interment, Canaan Corners Cemetery, Waymart.